

Welcome to the new deer archery season September 27. By now you should have checked out your archery equipment, cut firing lanes and practiced. Hunting from a tree stand? Be sure it is in good condition and already up. Deer notice anything new in appearance. Remember when your feet leave the ground a safety harness should be in use. Lastly scouting should have been done for deer movement.